

Table of contents

Foreword by Margret Hamm

Federation of the People Damaged by "Euthanasia" and who Underwent Compulsory Sterilization 9

Foreword by Professor Dr Günter Morsch

Director of the Brandenburg Memorials Foundation 11

Introduction by Astrid Ley and Annette Hinz-Wessels 15

Impressions from the permanent exhibition 41

THE "EUTHANASIA INSTITUTION" OF BRANDENBURG AN DER HAVEL .. 45

Murder of the ill and handicapped during National Socialism 45

Historical Basis 46

Eugenic propaganda 47

"Operation T4" 50

Killing centres and victims 54

The Old Prison at Brandenburg an der Havel: its history: 56

Introduction of a method of killing:

the "test killing" in Brandenburg an der Havel 62

The murder of patients in the T4 institution in Brandenburg 64

Preparing for the murder 64

Transport to the killing centre 67

Intermediate institutions 73

In the killing centre 77

Covering up the murder of patients	80
“Distribution department”, file swapping	85
Disposal of victims’ property	95
Dispatch of the urns	97
Berlin Processing Office	97
Mentally ill criminals – the first victims in Brandenburg	99
42b transports from Waldheim	99
42b transports from the Rhineland	101
Murdered for research purposes:
The children of the Görden institution	105
Killing at request	106
Research without scruples	110
Saved from the gas chamber	111
Held back – saved from death?	113
The cremation of the corpses	114
The relocation of the killing centre to Bernburg	116
The staff at the Brandenburg killing centre	117
Doctors	118
Nursing staff	131
Police officers and SA men	135
SS men	141
Administrative personnel	150
Housekeeping and domestic staff	153
Prelude to the holocaust:
“T4 Special Campaign” targeting Jewish patients	155
Discrimination and exclusion	155
Brandenburg, July 1940:
First mass murder of Jews in the German Reich	157
Extension of the “Special Campaign”	160
Deliberate concealment	163
Financial side of “Operation T4”	165
Massive reduction in psychiatric care	166
Deportations to the extermination camps	168

Resistance to the murder of patients	169
A judge of guardianship files a complaint	169
A Pastor uncovers the true story	171
A catholic provost protests to the Chief Physician of the Reich	172
Further murders of patients under the National Socialist regime	174
"Children's euthanasia"	174
"Decentralised euthanasia"	176
"Operation 14f13"	177
Transfer of T4 killing technology and staff to the extermination camps of "Operation Reinhardt"	179
Belżec extermination camp	181
Sobibór extermination camp	182
Treblinka extermination camp	184
The prosecution of euthanasia crimes after 1945	185
Trials in West Germany	185
Prosecution in the Soviet zone and GDR	187
Acts of remembrance in the town of Brandenburg an der Havel
since 1945	190
Loans	193
Imprint	196