

Content

Declaration of the Stockholm International Forum on the Holocaust	9
--	----------

About the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA)	11
--	-----------

Preface	13
Steven T. Katz, Advisor to the IHRA (2010–2017)

Foreword

The International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance, the Holy See and the International Conference on Refugee Policies ...	23
Thomas Michael Baier/Veerle Vanden Daelen

Opening Remarks	31
Mihnea Constantinescu, IHRA Chair 2016

Opening Remarks	35
Paul R. Gallagher

Keynote

Refugee Policies: Challenges and Responsibilities	41
Silvano M. Tomasi

FROM THE 1930s TO 1945

Wolf Kaiser
Introduction	49

Susanne Heim

The Attitude of the US and Europe to the Jewish Refugees from Nazi Germany	55
---	-----------

Johan Ickx The Holy See and Refugees (1933–1945)	63
---	----

Avinoam Patt No Place for the Displaced: The Jewish Refugee Crisis Before, During, and After the Second World War	97
--	----

DEVELOPMENTS SINCE 1945

Cecilie Felicia Stokholm Banke Introduction	123
--	-----

Dan Plesch Aftermath: Institutional Responses to Displaced Persons and Refugees after 1945	125
---	-----

Juliane Wetzel On the move Postwar German territory as a transit area for survivors, displaced persons, refugees and expellees	141
---	-----

Carl Bon Tempo The United States and Refugees after 1945	157
---	-----

THE PRESENT SITUATION

Robert J. Williams Contemporary Challenges	167
---	-----

Stefan Lehne The EU and the Refugee Crisis of 2015–2016	175
--	-----

Kristina Touzenis International Law and Migration—the importance of the multilateral system for all of us	191
--	-----

Giovanni Pietro Dal Toso
The Holy See 199

Mukesh Kapila
On the Road to Damascus 207

AFTERWORDS

Stephane Jaquet
The Importance of Remembering 215

Michael O'Flaherty
Why the European Union is a Community of Values
under Threat; and Why We Must Not Lose Hope 223

IHRA Delegates and Moderators 231

Invited Speakers and Moderators 235