

Table of contents

- 7 ANDREA PETŐ
“Bitter Experiences” Reconsidered:
Paradigm Change in Holocaust Memorialisation
- 14 JANINE FUBEL · KATJA GROSSE-SOMMER · BORBÁLA KLACSMANN ·
DENISA NEŠTÁKOVÁ · MAREIKE OTTERS · CHRISTOPH GOLLASCH
Introduction
- I. Memorialisation at Camp Sites
- 35 KAROLINA KOPROWSKA · SYLWIA PAPIER
Between Art and Academia: The Un-Memorialised site of Płaszów Concentration Camp – Possible Futures
- 56 MAXIMILIAN SCHULZ
Between Glorification and Marginalisation:
Practices of Memory Surrounding the Leipzig-Thekla Sub-camp
and the Abtnaundorf Massacre
- 91 BIBIJANA PAPO HUTINEC
Memorialisation of Roma Genocide: Jasenovac Case Study
- II. Continuities of Stigmatisation
- 119 ANJA REUSS
Antigypsyism in Post-War Germany and the Struggle for Recognition of Sinti and Roma in the Aftermath of the Holocaust
(1945–1950)

- 155 MIRJAM SCHNORR
Forgotten, Unwanted and Uncomfortable?
Prostitutes and Pimps as Victims of National Socialism
- 187 NICK WARMUTH
Recognising Victimisation: The Memoirs of Josef Kohout
and Carl Schrade in the Context of Historical Persecution

III. The Importance of Testimonies

- 225 HANNAH WILSON
“We are Presently in the Quietness Before a Storm”:
The Diaries of Jan de Jong and Selma Engel-Wijnberg,
Victims of Sobibór Death Camp
- 266 DANIEL SCHUCH
Recounting Buchenwald:
Three Interviews over Fifty Years with One Survivor
- 291 LUKAS NIEVOLL
Applause, Acquittal and Antisemitism:
The 1963 Trial against Franz Murer, former Adjutant of the Regional Commissioner of Vilnius, in Graz
- 320 Contributors and editors